Notice of Revision of Dividend Forecast (Increase)

At the Board of Directors meeting held on October 31, 2017, Information Development Co., Ltd., from here on written as “the Company,” resolved to revise the Company’s dividend forecast (increase).

1. Reason for Revision

The Company is aware that redistribution of profits to shareholders is an important management issue. Although profits are expected to decline temporarily due to two unprofitable projects in software development this fiscal year, the year-end distribution projection for the year ending March 2018 is 40.00 yen, considering, comprehensively, business development and financial conditions from next year onwards.

This matter will be discussed and voted on at the regular general meeting of shareholders, scheduled to be held in June 2018.

2. Details of Revision

	Annual dividend per share
	End of second quarter	End of fiscal period	Total
Previous estimate (April 28, 2017 announcement)	—	37.00 yen	37.00 yen
Previous revision estimate	—	40.00 yen	40.00 yen
Current term results	0.00 yen	—	—
Previous term results (Fiscal period ended March 2017)	0.00 yen	37.00 yen	37.00 yen
